SOCIAL and PERSONAL

who have been in Richmond for the month of May, are leaving to-morrow afternoon for Washington, where they will spend a short time before going to Canada for the summer months. Mrs. Bull is a very distinguished and cultured woman and her the summer months. cultured woman, and her talk before the members of the Art Club of Rich-mond recently was one of the most interesting affairs given at the Art Club

Mrs. Bull and her daughter expect to visit rolatives in Columbia S before leaving this country for their home in Paris.

Prominent Wedding. Richmond society is much interested the marriage of Miss Madge Carney Winn, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John D. Winn, and Ensign Milton Marion Fenner, United States Navy, which took place on Monday night at 8 o'clock in Christ Church, Norfolk. The Rev. D. O. Jones performed the ceremony in the presence of a large assembly of guests, and the altar and chancel of the church were decorated in lighted tapers, palms and white

The bridesmaids, Misses Edith Stevenson, of Philadelphia; Helen Berl, of Wilmington, Del.; Mary Day Winn, of Richmond, and Helen Gerard, of Norfolk, wore lovely gowns of rainbow shades fashioned of chiffon and shadow lace and drapad over this lace and draped over white satin. They carried old-fashioned nosegays tied with streamers to match the draperies of their gowns. The ribbons were held by little Jacqueline Haxall Winn and John D. Winn, III., niece and nephew of Mrs. William H. Gilkeson and the contraction of Mrs.

honor, was gowned in yellow char-meuse draped in chiffon and shadow lace, and her bouquet was similar to those carried by the bridesmalds. En-sign Lucian Green, United States Navy, sign Lucian Green, United States Navy, was best man.

Following the ceremony at the church, a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother and sisterin-law, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Winn. Decorations were in La France roses and ferns against a background of palms and ferns, and the lights were shaded in rose color.

Guests from a distance included Mrs. Milton Fenner, of Fredonia, N. Y. Mrs. James, of New York City; Mrs. Roger B. Combs, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. A. B. Cooke, of Claremont: Mr. Norris, of Richmond: Fred Simmons, of Richmond: Mrs. C. W. Winn, Misses Mary day on board the steamship Saxonia to

ond; Mrs. C. W. Winn, Misses Mary ay and Elizabeth Winn, of Richmond; usign Lucian Green, of the U. S. S. Tripp. 'diss Edith Stephenson, of Philadelphia: Miss Helen Berl, of Wilmington, Del.: Bryan Merritt, of Richmond, and Miss Jennie Mayer, of Altoona, Pa. Ensign and Mrs. Fenner left later in the evening for Old Point, from where they fill leave to-day for a Northern will spend the summer with a party of the summer wit

The marriage of Miss Florence Isabel

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND

The Dunlop Mills Richmond Var

The Latest in Ice Cream and Cake: from Shepherd's New Factory Call Mad. 7148 2008 W. Broad St.

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation WE MAKE A SPECIALTY

J. B. Mosby & Co.

High - Class Wash Dresses at reduced prices.

Women.

Broad at Second.

For the big and little girls; canvas or buckskin; high or low shoes; moder-

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges PETTIT & CO.'S?

EVERY CHILD NEEDS A

Summer Reefer Chilly days always appear on the summer calendar. The children will welcome these little reefers at sea-

Special Sale To-Day

shore, mountain or lake.

at $3.50

Reefers of fine serge. strictly tailored, double-breasted, with side pockets and emblem on sleeve; tan, navy and red; 2 to 6

at $5.00

Nobby shepherd check coat, box pleated, with deep satin sash or patent leather belt; 2 to 6 of the bride, and the ushers, who were of Mrs. William H. Gilkeson and the their daughter, Miss Wilhelmina Newof the bride, and the ushers, who were the full dress naval uniform, were Ensigns Glen Smith, G. A. Zimmerman, be celebrated this evening at 6 o'clock afternoon, and from 8 to 11 o'clock in Harold Snow and Robert A. Doyle, in the home of the brace, 1912 Hanover the evening the States Navy.

Third Floor.

In the home of the brace, 1912 Hanover the evening the evening the Rev. I. Morton Mercer, D. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weinberg, of will be at The bride entered one church on the arm of her brother, John Dederich Winn, who gave her away. Her wedding gown was of heavy white satin with insets of real lace, and the bodice was finished with pointiace and tulle. Her only ornament was a diamond necklace, the groom's gift, and her lookace, th day on board the steamship Saxonia to d Elizabeth Winn, of Richmond: Lucian Green, of the U.S.S. diss Edith Stephenson, of Phil-as: Miss Helen Berl of Wilming. Maria F. Parkinson, of Hollins Col-friends, visiting places of interest on the Continent and in the British Isles, and will be in France for the fall. Miss Young and the late William Junius Carneal will remain in Paris with friends for the coming winter, and will not return to Richmond until some time late in the season. They sail from

Miss Elizabeth Selden Herbert, of this city, is spending several days in Chester. Miss Herbert is the guest of Miss Gladys Thaw at her home in Ches

A quiet, but pretty, wedding was celebrated last Thursday afternoon at i ents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Powell, at Emporia, when Miss Mary Ellen Powell was married to Charles Gilbert Burr. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue ratine cloth, with a hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Lucy Powell, as maid of honor, wore embroidered batiste with touches of pink messaline, with a pink picture hat, and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Little Janie Potter, a niece of the bride was ring-barrer and worth the bride, was ring-bearer, and wore a white lingerie frock, with pink rib-bons, and carried the ring in a lily. Ennis Eanes, of Emporia, was best man, and Mr. Powell gave his daugh-

Miss Alice Burgess, of Farmville, dayed the wedding music, and Traumerie" was rendered very softly played during the ceremony, which was per-formed by the Rev. J. Sidney Peters, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The house was decorated very prettily in pink roses and sweet peas against a background of ferns and palms, and lighted candles were used on the im-provised altar. Following the recep-tion an informal reception was held, of packing household goods and china only the nearest relatives and most intimate friends of the bride and groom being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr will spend the summer in Madison, Wis., and will be at home in Farmville after October 1. Approaching Marriage.

The Roanoke Times contains the fol-owing: "Much interest has been manifested in the announcement of Dr. and Mrs. John Bushnell of the engagement and IT'S ASKING TOO MUCH of your cook to stand over a coal or wood range when you can obtain a New Process Gas Range so reasonably

at

Sydnor & Hundley

Sydnor & Hundley

"Dreyfies

"Dreyfies

"Dreyfies

"Dreyfies

"Dreuglies

"Dreuglies

"Specialists in Apparel for Women." "Miss Bushnell is prominently related throughout Virginia. She is the granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Por-ter Terrill, who were so much beloved in this section of Virginia, and a grandin this section of Virginia, and a grandmice of Generals James B. and William R. Terrill, of Civil War fame. Mr. Anderson is the son of the late Francis and Rosa Bruce Anderson, who lived at the old Anderson estate, "Glenwood," on the James River, 25,000 acres of which have recently been sold to the government. He is also widely connected throughout the State. He is the nephew of Major William A.
Anderson, of Lexington, and is related to many of the oldest families, the Bruces, Alexanders, Clarks, Spottswoods and Henrys.

"He was former superintendent of public schools at Bristol, Tenn., and prior to that time held other responsible educational positions in Virginia.

sible educational positions in Virginia. He is a graduate of V. P. I., Blacks-burg, of class of 1904. The bridal par-ty will include a number of young people prominent in society in Virginia, Kentucky and Florida."

stay-at-Home Whist Club. The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Blanc Spottswood Smith, 301 East Grace Street. There were two tables playing, and the highest score was made by Mrs. Harrie Webster and Mrs. Smith. The club will play next Monday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Wilmur, 817 West Grace Street. Commencement Exercises.

Commencement exercises of the Pe-gram Seminary will be held next week The commencement sermon will be preached on Sunday evening, June 15the Grove Avenue Baptist Church by the Rev. W. C. James, D. D. There be appropriate music, and all friends and patrons of the school are asked to attend. Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at 1829 Floyd Avenue the graduating class will entertain the alumnae and, since no invitations have been issued, all former pu plls of the school are expected. usual commencement exercises will be held on Friday evening of next week. and an interesting program has been The medals and diplomas will be tresented by the Rev. J. J. Bradford, pastor of the Park Place Methodist Church, and the class includes Franklin Kain, Bradley Kain, Dorothy Jenkins, Myrtle Snelson, Benetta May Hulce, Clemmie Sisson, Gladys Hargrave, Vernetta Haase, Elizabeth Frazer, Harry Thompson Katherine Sullivan, Eva Lowery, Ella Morris, Esther Hughes, Emily McCoul, Newton Gordon, Ida Rose, Thelma Brock, Mary Brock, Virginia Allen, Edna Heffley, Hugh Ewing and Blanche

At Home To-Day. Mr. and Mrs. B. Newman, of 513 North Sixth Street, will be at home to-day in honor of the confirmation of be present to-day. All visiting Daugh-In and Out of Town.

Miss May Collins will arrive next week from Birmingham, Als., to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Gunn, at Norfolk, where she friends for a week. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lyneman left where they will spend some time. is city, motored to Staunton Sunday, and are the guests of Mrs. Lee's par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bryan. Misses Martha and Eliza Harvie are guesta of Dr. Lewis E. Harvie in Dan-after a visit to their sister, Mrs. Mrs. Frank Roth and her daughter, Miss Lillian Roth, have returned to Newport News, after visiting relatives

Miss Julia Clemmer, who has been spending several weeks here, has returned to her home in Staunton. Mlas Florence Kelly has returned to the city, after spending the week-end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Kelly, in Charlottesville.

Stops Falling Hair

Hall's Hair Renewer certainly stops falling hair. No doubt about it whatever. You will surely be satisfied.

to be given for the ten nearest guesses of the number of Kodak film spools in our window, 211 E. Broad St. A photographic purchase of 25c entitles you to a guess-a $15.00 Kodak is the first prize.

Quality Developing and Printing.

G. L. Hall Optical Co

"Eyeglass and Kodak Shop." 211 East Broad Street.

See Our 1913 Patterns of GO-CARTS and CARRIAGES.

Rothert &

Fourth and Broad.

DETROIT GAS RANGES. ALASKA HEFRIGERATORS. OLD HICKORY PURTITUES.

AT ALL GROCERS.

72x90 Welded Seam Sheets, the best for the money; while they last

SALE OF SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES Pillow Cases, in two sizes, best quality for the money at..... 10c Pillow Cases, in two sizes in hem-stitch and plain; a fine grade of cotton; a 16 2-3c seller $12^{1/2}\varepsilon$ The Langdon Pillow Case, 45x36.

made from the best grade of cotton; would be a good value at 22c; 17c Sheets, large double-bed size. These

See this Large 81x90 Heavy Sheet,

See this Large Sixton inen finish; a good 75c value; our price will be this 62½c

ALL IDENTIFIED WITH ORDER OF ORANGEMEN

Who Is Now in Limelight, Its Grand Master.

thorities at Dublin, of a consignment of 500 rifles and bayonets, dispatched James I., and who is a frequent visito him from an English firm, to his country seat in County Cavan, and said to be intended for use by those Ulster Unionists who have expressed their intention of resisting by force of arms any home rule legislation that may be enacted, belongs to f family that has always been identified with "Elile Helps for Busy Men." that has always been identified with the Order of Orangemen, of which his father, the late Lord Farnham, was the

The present Lord Farnham distinguished himself in the South African war. On the occasion of his first candidature for the life office as a representative peer of Ireland in the House of Lords, he was defeated in an alto-Miss Barbara Trigg has gone to gether unique manner. His rival was orfolk, where she is the guest of Lord Ashton, and the two may be said to have run a dead heat in the race, which resulted in a tie. In order to d Mrs. John H. Lyneman left tor Cincinnati and Louisville, ley will spend some time.

d Mrs. O. E. Lee and boy, of motored to Staunton Sunday, the motored to Staunton Sunday. the next vacancy occurring in the ranks of the twenty-eight representative peers. He belongs to one of those families of the British aristoeracy that seem to be pursued by a relentless fate, and although the peerage was created but a little over a hundred years ago, he is already the eleventh wearer of the coronet. The seventh lord died suddenly two weeks after succeeding to the title, while the eighth lord, grandfather of the present peer, lost his life and the present peer, lost his life and lord. in the terrible railroad accident at Abergele, in Wales. It may be remembered that a train of petroleum trucks got loose, and started down the steep incline near Abergele, coiliding trucks got loose, and started down the steep incline near Abergele, coiliding the steep incline near Abergele, the stee at Abergele, in Wales. It may be remembered that a train of petroleum trucks got loose, and started down the steep incline near Abergele, colliding with the Irish mail, the wrecked carriages being immediately enveloped in flames. The door of the compartment in which were Lord and Lady Farnham, had been locked by the conductor, in order to recure them from intrusion at the stations where the stops were made, and being thus unable to escape, had been locked by the conductor, in order to recure them from intrusion at the stations where the stops were er, Prince Peter, renounced all his rights and pretensions in his favor.

The stations where the stops were er, Prince Peter, renounced all his rights and pretensions in his favor.

The stations where the stops were er, Prince Peter, renounced all his ferson Ward, and John L.

The stations where the stops were ere, Prince Peter, renounced all his ferson Ward, and John L.

The stations where the stops were ere, Prince Peter, renounced all his ferson Ward, and John L.

The present Lord Farnham's elder tary training, and, under the pseu-hother was killed by a bicycle accident in the midst of the festivities of that band of blue-blooded French-organized to celebrate his coming of the feet of the feet in the organized to celebrate his coming of age. Another brother also met with death through an accident in 1907; while the late and tenth Lord Farnham experienced no end of unpleasantness in connection with charges of forgery brought against him by a man of the name of Hale. The latter had been for more than thirty years a confidential servant and principal facto-tum of the ninth lord, and insisted that the will probated by his succes-sor was a bogus document, and not the one which he knew his master to have signed on his deathbed. Although Hale never succeeded in prov ing his accusation, yet the latter caused the late Lord Farnham no end of expense and annoyance, which undoubt-edly hastened its death. Lord Farnham has two little boys, the elder now eight years old, and the anxiety of als parents regarding him will be read appreciated when it is explained that throughout County Cavan, in which the estates of the family are situated, a superstition prevails that owing to some ancient curse, no Lord Farnham can ever transmit the title to his eldest son. Indeed, since the year 1800, it has only in one solitary instance passed from a father to his eldest son, that son being the noble man who perished in such a frightful fashion in the railroad wreck at Aber-The family name of the Lords of Farnham is Maxwell, and it is hardly recessary to add that like most other nothing more delicious—nethinabitants of the North of Ireland, will so tickle jaded appetites. they are of Scotch origin. They owe their wealth and prosperity to the fact that they fattened on ecclesiastical benefices, and held high dignities in the state church of Ireland for a number of generations, including the bishoprics of Kilmore and Ardagh. The founder of the family was Sir Aymar de Maxwell, who was also chamberlain of the Kingdom of Scotland.

Lady Farnham was Miss Alleen Coote, member of that family which furnished to New York its first Reform Governor in Colonial days, namely, the Earl of Bellamont, who died at his post in March, 1791, and lies buried in St. Paul's Churchyard, New York. The Cootes are a very ancient Richmond, Va. the state church of Ireland for a num-ber of generations, including the York. The Cootes are a very ancient family, and the first baronet received his title and estates in Ireland from King James I. for his military ser ices against the O'Nells, Earls of Ty ne. It was a younger son of one these baronets of the King James reation who became Earl of Belle-

The last Earl of Bellemont died in 1774, and having no legitimate issue, obtained an English baronetcy for him-self, with remainder to his illegitimate son. The latter on the earl's deat succeeded, not to his pecrage, but t the baronetcy and the estates, and is his great-grandson. Sir Charles Algernon Coote, who fortunately has n son and no heir, who has frequently been denounced in the pages of Lon-don Truth, and in its cautionary list,

Father of Present Lord Farnham, as a professional mendicant and begging letter writer, and as keeping the wolf from the door by means of begging letters and soliciting aims.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. This Sir Charles Algernon Coote ORD FARNHAM, who has just must not be confounded with Sir Alcome into the limelight, through the seizure by the customs authorities at Dublin, of a consignment baronetcy dates from the reign of with "Bible Helps for Busy Men."

The consent having been obtained mittee's action. from the ex-Crown Princess of Brazil, who now makes her home in France d'Eu, for the transfer of the remains of her parents, the late Dom Pedro and his Empress, to Rio, the national legislature of Brazil has now passed a bill providing for the conveyance across the Atlantic on a warship, with fitting honors, and for their suitable entombment in the national capital. There are some who see in all this an omen of monarchical restoration in the southern half of this Western Hemisphere, and recall that the bringing back of the remains of the First Emperor Napoleon from the Island of St. Helena, where they now rest under the cupola of the Palace of the Invalides served to revive Bonapartist sympathles and left to the eventual served. of her parents, the late Dom Pedro and served to revive Bonapartist sympa-thies, and led to the eventual restoration of a Bonaparte empire under Na-poleon III.

The latter, when the body of his ent peer, lost his life, as did also his ganza-Bourbon, second son of the ex-Crown Princess of Brazil, and grand-son and principal heir of Dom Pedro, an Jast South African war, under the command of Colonel Count de Ville-bois, who fell in action. So that the prince has smelt powder on actual battlefields, and has some personal Company.)

DeliciousWaffles Made With Good Luck Baking Powder

to some delicious waffles. Serve light waffles piping hot. There Waffles require a good leavener of famous good house-

DUD LUC

Richmond, Va.

BIRTHDAY RINGS, BRACELETS. CAMEO BROOCHES.

Smith & Webster 805 East Main.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit,

IGAVE NO NOTICE

Evidence Piles Up of Irregularities in Conduct of Primary.

BYRD LAW NOT OBSERVED

Wishes Will Stand.

Complex situations in the local primary continue to grow. Not only did the City Democratic Committee fail to give notice to the Secretary of the Commonwealth of its intention to hold a legalized primary, but many of the committee themselves, now candidates or re-election, have not filed any notice of candidacy with the clerk of the Byrd law. The committee is going ahead with the primary, notwithstanding the irregularities, Chairman Marprobable that any court would invalitin holding that it is extremely imdate a primary which honestly expressed the wishes of the voters. A primary election, he believes, could only be set aside on the ground of Imbued with the idea that holding the primary under the general provisions of the Byrd law was optional. the committee went ahead with its plans for an annexation referendum, and in other ways took the general ground that as it was paying for it, it could run the primary as it saw fit. The decision of Judge Crump in regard to the approvation referendum came as to the annexation referendum came as a distinct surprise, and most of the members have not yet gotten over their temper that one member of the com mittee should have raised a point which served to restrict the scope of the com-

Section 24 of the Byrd primary law requires the party authorities holding a primary to notify the Secretary of the Commonwealth thirty days before such election. No such notice of the was to be a Byrd law primary, and it is obviously too late now to give the thirty-day notice to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, required by law. Also it is obviously too late for the chairman of the committee and others to post notices of their candidacy with the clerk of the Hustings Court sixty

Among the candidates for the City Democratic Committee order to recure them from intrusion order to recure them from intrusion of at the stations where the stops were made, and being thus unable to escape, they perished in the flames, their remains being so entirely consumed that nothing was left save the fused setting of some jewelry worn by Lady Farnham.

The present Lord Farnham's elder

The pre mittee. For that position the election to-morrow is not a primary, but a final election.

A great deal of comment has been created by the obvious unwillingness of the committee to hold a legalized prince has smelt powder on actual pattlefields, and has some personal knowledge of active warfare. He is married to Princess Marie of Bourbon-Sielly, one of the many daughters of the Count of Caserta, claimant to the throne of Naples.

(Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood (Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood (Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood (Copyright, 1914, by the Brentwood (Copyright, 1915, by the Brentwood (Copyright, 1915, by the Brentwood (Copyright, 1915, by the Brentwood (Copyright, 1916, by the election

ADDRESS BY HEFLIN.

Fenture of Closing Exercises of Staun-ton High School.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Staunton, Va., June 19.—The closing exercises of the Staunton High School are notable this year because of the fact that Thomas J. Heflin, member of the national House of Representa-of the national House of Representatives from Alabama, who is noted for his eloquence, is the orator. Mr. Heffin addressed the graduates to-night in the Beverley Theatre, the house being packed with a throng eager to hear him. His subject was "The South."

The graduates of the high school this year are: Warren Miller, Emmett Randolph, and Misses Margaret Anderson, Lottie Henderson, May Henderson, Marie Miller, Amelia Prufer and Lucie Woodward. Partial graduates are: Virgil Hook and Misses Elizabeth Harman and Sue Lankford.

Miss Lucie Woodward won the medal and the scholarship to the Mary Bald-iping hot. There's and the scholarship to the Mary Ba win Seminary, and Miss May Hendi son the scholarship to Stuart Hall.

TUNNELL SHAFT UNVEILED. Monnment Erected in Memory of Ho

Monument Erected in Memory of Herote Virginia Woman.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Hampton, Va., June 10.—As the National Soldiers' Home band played "Auld Lang Syne" this afternoon Miss May Sheppard, of Norfolk, drew the veil from the monument in St. John's Cemetery erected to Mrs. Hannah Nicholson Tunnell for her heroic act in informing the Confederates of the presence of the Northern Army, fifty-two years ago, on the night before the Eattle of Bethel. Mrs. Tunnell, it is believed saved the first battle of the Civil War for the Confederacy through Civil War for the Confederacy through her long journey in the night.

Rev. E. T. Wellford, of Newport News, delivered the adress of the occasion, and Harry R. Houston was the master of ceremonies.

master of ceremonies.

Miss Sheppard is a grandniece of Mrs. Tunnell. About 2,000 people attended the unveiling. The monument was erected by the Chapters of the Daughters in Hampton, Newport News, York, Warwick and Elizabeth City Counties. Counties.

Virginia Postmasters Named.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, D. C., June 10.—The following Virginia postmasters were named by the President to-day.
Lulu M. Ray, Mount Jackson; I. Henry Savage, Chincotegue Island; J. D. Crenshaw, Cambria; W. A. Brooks, Chase City.

Gold and Silver Novelties

For birthdays, anniversaries, wed-

Articles which come from the Schwarzschild Store have an added appreciation.

Schwarzschild Bros.

Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

Chairman Martin Believes Honest VEIL OF MYSTERY WILL BE REMOVED

Charles M. Galloway Nomibnated to Be One of Civil Service Commissioners.

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington. D. C., June 10.—The nomination of Charles M. Galloway, of South Carolina, to be a Civil Service Commissioner, sent to the Senate by the President to-day, is one of the best appointments which Mr. Wilson has yet made. Mr. Galloway was for about fourteen years connected with the Columbia State, and severed his connection with that paper to come to Washingon when Senator E. D. Smith entered the Senate. Aside from being an excellent selection personally, the President has done much to reassure the people of the South that there is real merit in the Civil Service Commission if its affairs are properly administered and if it is shorn of the veil of mystery which has surrounded much of its work. That Mr. Galloway will not only perform the duties of his new office with oredit to the administration, but also with satisfaction to the people generally, both in and out of the service, is a well-recognized fact by those who know him.

How English Beauties

Keep Faces Youthful Christian Miller, F. C. I., noted English health expert attributes the early aging of American women mainly to the "national nervousness." The women of England, she says, can teach us the inestimable lesson of repose.

Richmond Exchange for Woman's Work

Home-made Pickles, Preserves and Jellies, to be delivered in November. Will be glad to receive orders also for the summer months for embroidery of napery, to be delivered in Septemher or at any time desired.

> The House of Fashion Bernard Frances & Co. Broad and Fifth Sts.

Non-Berthard Constitution Constitution

Remember,

a Department Drug Store. What we haven't got we can get for you. .

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET MILLINERY- Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

Ladies' Tan Rubber Sole Oxfords, $2.25.

ALBERT STEIN Corner 5th and Broad

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness." Tel. Mad. 630.

